

FROM INDIANA. to Workmen—A Democratic

NEWS BY THE CABLE.

Of Interest—The Instructions the British Government Sent to Lord Wolseley.
General Gordon Refuses to Aban-

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Recent official correspondence relating to Egyptian affairs has been made public. A letter of instructions from the Government to General Wolseley stated that the object of his expedition was to bring Gordon and Stewart back from Khartoum. No further offensive operations than should prove necessary to secure this end would be permitted. Nothman's mission was to

Egyptian Government was prepared to assume the responsibility of the government of the Nile Valley beyond Wadyhalfa, though they would be glad to see an independent government established at Khartoum, which would keep peace

When it was known that General Gordon had sent Colonel Stewart to burn Berber the government directed Colonel Kitchener to send counter orders to Colonel Stewart. In a letter dated April 22 General Gordon writes that he has offered their freedom and pay to the slaves who

The Government to-day received a dispatch from General Gordon, in which he to scheme to leave the "people of Khartoum to their fate and without a stable government. He says he hopes the British government will not ask Abyssinia to "Such a humiliating peace to the Sudan as such a restoration," he says, "would be like a big boy asking a little boy to help him whip another boy who had insulted him, and who was far inferior in science and strength." A dispatch from Simla, says the British expeditionary force under Col. Tanner, met a body of Pathans entrenched in the Zhoib Valley and after a Relief for Workington.

MADRID, Oct. 27.—The fearful distress which has prevailed for some time past among the poorer classes in Madrid has at last attracted the attention of King Alfonso's Government. In order to somewhat relieve the thousands who are out of work, contracts have been issued for the building of four hundred houses, intended for occupation by workmen, each house to accommodate a number of families, and also to be erected, which, when finished, will afford room for many hundreds of children. These measures are expected to at least afford temporary relief to the unprecedented distress in Spain.

Parnell Accuses the Government.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—In the Commons today Parnell said he believed in case the Government would direct inquiry into the Lounstrastu murder case the Irish party would be able to prove the innocence of a number of the persons convicted of a part of the crimes. He maintained the Government had made no attempt to meet the case as presented by the Irish party.

Lancourt, Secretary of State for the Home

admitted guilt. It was certainly not the duty of the Government to review the verdict of the jury.

LOSOS, Oct. 27.—The iron industry in England has received a new impetus, and recent American competition has been somewhat offset by the fact that English steel rail makers have received orders to the amount of 60,000 tons. These enormous orders afford immense relief to the trade, and will go far toward preventing the closing of many factories in the North, which were running short-handed for lack of work.

Lost at Sea.

LOSOS, Oct. 27.—News confirmatory of the report that the German bark Senora, commanded by Capt. Spille, was totally lost at sea near Cervo, and all hands

SHE WHIPPED THE WIDOWS.
Two Fillets Soundly Cowed by the Jealous Wife of an Engineer.
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 27.—The plucky little wife of Engineer Myers, of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, distinguished herself and created no little sensation at Hackettstown last evening, by cowiding two young women who had been flirting with her husband. Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Trimmer are widows. They are constant companions, and both are fond of flirting as an innocent pastime. Nearly every afternoon, when the good-looking engineer would come into the depot on his locomotive, they would be there sweetly to smile upon him. He seemed to enjoy the sly flirtation, and always had a soft glance to bestow upon the widows. The gossip, however, heard of the sport, and his wife was informed of her husband's sly ways. She accordingly went to the station last night to meet the train. She found the two other ladies were also waiting for her husband. Promptly

...wife, it rushed the train. The widows
...the smokestacks. The wife
...a little in the crowd and be-
...held her husband return the salutation,
...with as sweet a smile as his smoke-be-
...rmed face could twist up. With eyes
...flashing the angry wife than drew a lan-
...in cowhide from the folds of her dress,
...and hurrying up to the smiling widow,
...hid their blows on their backs thick and
...The fire and the other side
...at across the shoulders with a
...several bystanders tried to interfere but
...theirate woman slashed away at them
...while passengers alighting from the ...main stop astounded and amused. The ...husband hid himself from view in his
...abosse. The cowering operation lasted held the little woman and relieved her of her weapon. While she was whipping the two women she cried out repeatedly: "You flirted with my husband, did you? Well, I'll teach you not to." And the selfish, swish of the cowhide emphasized her angry exclamations.

Agreed After Eighteen Hours.

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—The jury in the Porter murder trial brought in a verdict Saturday of murder in the second degree. They had been out eighteen hours, and stood at the outset six for murder in the first degree and six for acquittal. On the

A Sleeper Turned Bottom Side Up.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 27.—At Genesee Junction the sleeper on the West Shore train from this city was derailed last night and thrown bottom side up into the old Genesee valley canal. The passengers were badly shaken up, but none were se-